```
{
    "frame_id": 0,
    "timestamp": "2023-10-01T12:00:00Z",
    "period": "first_half",
    "match": {"id": "match_20230415_team1_team2"},
    "teams": {
        "home": {
            "id": "team1",
            "players": [
                {
                    "id": "player_h1",
                    "landmarks": [
                        {
                            "name": "head",
                            "x": 23.45,
                            "y": 15.67,
                            "z": 1.82,
                            "is_visible": true
                        },
                        {
                            "name": "neck",
                            "x": 23.48,
                            "y": 15.7,
                            "z": 1.65,
                            "is_visible": true
                        },
                        {
                            "name": "shoulder_right",
                            "x": 23.3,
                            "y": 15.75,
                            "z": 1.65,
                            "is_visible": true
                        },
                        ...
                    ]
                },
                ...
            ]
        },
        "away": {...}
    }
}
```

Figure 7: Example of the JSON Lines (.jsonl) for the Landmark Tracking Data. One frame is shown, with the first three landmarks of one home team player. The coordinate system is the same used in 3.3.